DEACON'S CORNER

This gospel is such a sad story. Here is the Lord of Life, in person, explaining the gift of the Eucharist, and people are turning away. This sixth chapter of John is amazing in its simple, straight forward presentation of Jesus' plan to leave us his Body and Blood as the bread of life. Jesus even strengthens the message as people start to leave by saying, "The words I have spoken to you are Spirit and life."

And yet many "returned to their former way of life." Only a few recognized that Jesus had "the words of eternal life." Could there be anything worse than coming close enough to hear Jesus' message and then returning to our former ways? What a let-down.

Let us pray that we may all recognize and understand Jesus' words of eternal life. His words are hard, but their fruit and the fruit of the Eucharist is life.

God's Blessings,
Deacon Jim
